

Framework for Assessment without Levels in MFL

Assessment without levels aims to enhance a student's understanding of what they can do and what they need to do to progress. Students who are doing better in a subject will be those who are working in ways described in the boxes at the top of the grey section of the grid.

Parent friendly TALK

Knowledge and understanding	Skills of the subject	Using the language of the subject use verbs in past, present and future tense as well as complex sentences independently.	understand longer conversations or texts on different topics, using verbs in past, present and future tense.	Compare and synthesise text from a range of sources.
use a wide range of vocabulary, verbs and structures to create complex sentences.	understand longer conversations and texts, using a range of key words and expressions.	answer questions about a text and justify answers.
extend sentences using a range of starters and connectives.	understand longer sentences using familiar keywords and expressions.	transcribe a text from French into English.
use basic verbs to create simple sentences in French or Spanish.	understand key word in context of simple sentences.	use a text to find an idea/answer.
say, write and understand a range of key words in specific topics in French or Spanish.	learn and remember key words in French or Spanish.	pick out key words in a text.