

Computing and Business Big Ideas

To develop analytical and problem solving skills through computational thinking and programming

To develop confident digital literacy to enable lifelong enjoyment of technology

To develop IT hardware, software and data knowledge to prepare for a digital world

Contextualised understanding of business functions, terms and operations to prepare for their future.

Preparing all with the knowledge to use technology safely, securely and responsibly