

Place & Space

- Locations of places and spaces around the world
- Places and environments have particular characteristics and features (physical and human)
- Patterns – spatial arrangement of places and features on the earth's surface.

Scale

- Investigating places and spaces at local, regional, national and global scales.

Physical and human processes

- Sequence of processes / actions that shape and change environments, places and societies

Skills learnt:

- Atlas skills
- Photographs and maps skills
- Statistical skills
- Graphical skills
- Ordnance survey map reading skills
- Literacy
- Independence

Interdependence

- Exploring the links between people, places and processes

Environmental interaction & sustainability

- Human interaction with and/or the alteration of the physical world can create challenges and opportunities.
- Adapting our ways of thinking and behaving in ways that allows individuals, groups, societies to meet their needs without preventing future generations to meet their needs.

Cultural understanding & diversity.

- Our complex and varied world.
- Places are diverse between and within themselves (environmentally, socially, culturally and economically)
- How people's values and viewpoints influence decisions, interactions and responses